YONKERS.

Yonkers received its share of the storm yesterday. It began to snow shortly after 11 o'clock Tuesday night and the wind blew hard from the northwest, causing many drifts. The Yonkers Electric Railroad cleared. Men with shovels were sent out to where the drifts were the worst. The most trouble was experienced on the Mount Vernon line, and it was not lin noon that the cars could be run with any regularity. In the hight two tugs, with tows attached, were compelled to just into the wharf at Ashburton-ave, for shelter. Few people were on the street in the forenoon. The funeral of Edmund R. Tate took place yes. the North Division-st. clubroom on New Year's views.

The funeral of Edmund R. Tate took place yesterday afternoon at his home, on Mount Airy, near terday afternoon at his home, on Mount Airy, near here. Mr. Tate was a well-to-do and much-respected farmer. He was born in Delhi, Delaware spected farmer. He was born in Delhi, Delaware County, this State, seventy-four years ago. He has lived in this part of the county for over half a century, however. For a number of years he was the manager of Oscawana island, the excursion resort six miles below this village. He leaves a widow and three sons. Edmund, Melvin and Vincent. He died suddenly on Sanday morning, presumably from apoplexy. Coroner Appar held an inquest. The snowstorm and miniature blizzard struck Peekskill yesterday morning shortly after midnight. Snow fell all day, and a gale of wind prevailed, which drifted the snow about the village and made travelling unpleasant. The carriers were all late in their postal deliveries. Toward evening the storm abated. Though enough snow fell to make good sleighing, it drifted so that many of the streets were perfectly bare, and few sleighs ventured out.

The second "smoker" given under the auspices of the New-Rochelle Rowing Club, will be held to-night at the clubhouse in Hudson Park. About 290 guests are expected to be present.

guests are expected to be present.

The suit of Burnett & Klerke, representing the citizens of New-Rochelle against the village trustees and Union Railrond Company, for bribery and corruption, in the matter of the franchise granted to that road, will not be affected by the recent decision of the trustees to annul the franchise, which they did, on the grounds of limitation. The suit is still pending, and must be heard before January I, when the term of Judge Dykman, of the County when the term of Judge Dykman, of the County when the term of Judge Dykman, of the County of the county of the case, a local company will be ortified and give bonds to complete a trolley the front the present terminus in Pelham Manor, through the village to Larchmont on or before April 1, 1887.

The Young Men's Republican Club, in accordance with a recent resolution, will give the first of a series of "smokers" and entertainments in its clubhouse this evening.

The Board of Health will hold a meeting to-morrow night, at which it is expected the recent complaint of C. Oliver Iselin and others in relation to the Hudson Park sewer outler will be considered.

John O'Brien, forty years old, whose home is in Larchmont, was stricken with apoplexy while baing shaved by a barber in a shop in Bridge-st. New-Rochelle, on Wednesday night. He was removed to the police station and died soon after. The body was taken to the Morgue.

CHAPPAQUA.

The Rev. Elwood Scott is holding a series of evening meetings in the Friends' Orthodox Meet-Ing-house this week.

A convention of King's Daughters, under the auspices of the "Be Ready" Circle at Chappaqua, will be held in the Baptist Church to-morrow afternoon and evening. The business of the afternoon will be the appointing of a county secretary and the discussion of various matters. In the evening Mrs. Isabelia Charles Davis, corresponding secretary of the international order, will address the meeting.

The second entertalument in the course arranged by the Katonah Village Improvement Association will be given this evening in the Presbyterian Church by Miss Vandelia Varnum, of New-York,

Church by Miss Vandelia Varnum, of New-York, who will lecture on "Who Pays the Freight."

Emily Augusta Munroe, the wife of G. Washington Van Scoy, dled at her home in South Salem last Baturday morning. Mrs. Van Scoy was sixty-three years old, and had been ill for many years. The funeral took place at the house on Monday, at 2 o'clock in the atternoon, the Rev. Mr. Van Norden officiating, and the burial was in the family plot at Cross River. Mrs. Van Scoy's aged mother, who had gone to visit her daughter, died suddenly the same week, and was buried the day the daughter died.

WHITE PLAINS. Surrogate Silkman has issued letters of administration with the will annexed to Matthew A. Bro-derick, of Irvington, as administrator of the estate of Henry J. Fagan, late of Yonkers; Alonzo C. Acker, on the estate of Daniel Lawrence, late of Ossining; and to John Shaughnessy, on the estate of James Deely, late of Mount Pleasant. Also letters of administration to Rosa E. Willis as administrative of the estate of her husband, Stephen J. Willis, of North Salem, and to Carrie B. Fuller as administrative of the estate of her husband, Edward P. Fuller, late of Mount Vernon.

The storm was severe all over Westchester Country roads. For instance, the circular damage was done other than blocking the trolley-cars, which did not get through the high snowdrifts which piled up on the country roads. They will make an effort to run to-day. An effort was made with a plough to clear the tracks, but the drifts piled up again as fast Acker, on the catate of Daniel Lawrence, late of as removed, so the company postponed work until the wind died out.

SING SING.

Professor Woodrow Wilson will lecture before the University Extension Centre, at the Presby-terian Church, this evening, on "Political Morality University Provided Forms".

TARRYTOWN.

The smoker of the Cycle Association at the Young Men's Lyceum, Tuesday evening, was an enjoyable affair. There were singing, dancing, smoking of long pipes and refreshments. The principal affair, a boxing match between Harry Reardon, of this place, and Louis Cantony, of Sing Sing, after

An "experience sociable" will be held at the home of Mrs. George Ely, in Lawrence-ave, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society connected with St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, this evening. Among the women who will take part are Mrs. Wilbur De Revere, Miss Grace Heusted, Mrs. William Morse, Mrs. George Daniel, Mrs. George Ely and Mrs. Clarke.

The snow of yesterday spoiled the skating on the small ponds in the neighborhood. The drifts in some places were from five to ten feet high. Broadway was thronged with many handsome sleighs belonging to the wealthy residents of Tarrytown, fryington, Ardsley, Dobbs Fetry, Hastings and other places.

The Young Men's Lyceum bowling team will go to Yonkers to-morrow evening to bowl two games in the Yonkers to-morrow evening to bowl two games in the Yonkers tournament. The Lyceum team has already won two games in the tournament, and is confident of winning the first prize.

The contract for preparing a large tract of waste land at East Yuew for a new reservoir has been awarded to James Duell by the Board of Water Commissioners. When completed the new reservoir will hold an ample supply of water for the needs of the village, while the present treservoirs contain enough water to supply Tarrytown for the coming year.

The work of constructing the sewer through Sunnyside Lane to the Hudson River is being pushed, although work was suspended yesterially owing to the storm. No action in regard to the village boards of trustees of Irvington or Tarrytown. President Bird, of Tarrytown, told a Tribune reporter that the road is a public highway, but that, as the old wharf long known as "Wolfert's dock" has disappeared, nothing is to be gained by a controversy. Last summer on several occasions hundreds of cyclists invaded "Sannyside," and after surveying the place they would pick choice flowers and break off the twigs of trees and carry them was

STATEN ISLAND HAPPENINGS.

The Staten Island Electric Railroad yesterday norning was compelled to abandon its work in Castleton-ave., owing to the severity of the storm. A force of deputies was kept on hand, guarding the road. The company provided two big vars, heated with oil stoves, for the men, and also food and warm clothing. There is little probability of and warm clothing. There is little probability of any further strife, except through the medium of the courts.

John E. Armstrong, seventy years old, formerly a well-known resident of the county, died in Brooklyn yesterday. His death was caused by exhaustion, consequent upon the amputation of his hand, which was crushed by an elevator. He served as Supervisor of Middle-lown in 1872, and for thirty-three years was treasurer of Tompkins Lodge No. 471. F. and A. M.

Justice Truax, of the Supreme Court, has ap-pointed Arthur Ingraham receiver of the assets of Warren, Jerks & McNeely, railroad contractors Thomas C. McNeely, for the dissolution of the co partnership. The firm was formed in September 1884, to construct the tallroad of the Henderson-ville and Brevard Railway, Telegraph and Televille and Brevard Railway, Telegraph and Telephone Company between Hendersonville and Brevard, N. C., and Warren and Jenks assert they furnished all the capital for the undertaking. The firm received, as compensation for building the road, $150,000 bonds and $127,000 in stock of the company. These are the entire assets of the firm now, but $131,000 of the bonds are pledged for debts incurred in building the road, $12,000 bonds and $125,000 stock are in the hands of the Central Trust Company for account of the firm, and $1.00 clamorous for their money, and unless paid by January 1 the property will be sold. These are the only assets of the firm. Warren and Jenks have found a purchaser for the stocks and bonds for enough to pay all the creditors and partially pay Warren and Jenks the amount due to them, but Mr. McNeely will not agree to the sale, asserting that he disposed of his interest in the firm more than a year ago as collateral security for his debts.

Judgments aggregating $1.376 were entered yesterday agaist the Greater New-York Land and Improvement Company, of No. 264, East Forty-second-st. in favor of Thomas S. Ryder for $1.853 on fifteen notes and James T. Morris for $1.475 and Simon Van Winkle for $1.078, both on two notes of the company, Dr. Ryder was president, Mr. Morris secretary and Mr. Van Winkle treasurer. The company was incorporated in May, 1894, with a capital stock of $20.000, purchased forty acres of land at White Plains, N. Y., and has since been selling the land in lots.

D. & M. Well, manufacturers of furs at No. 191 Mercer-st., have given a bill of sale to Herman Lovy as security for lonas made to the firm. The bill of sale has not been recorded, and the consideration is unknown.
